WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO VOTE ABSENTEE?

Only those voters who meet the legal requirements are eligible to vote absentee (See Utah Code 20A-3-304):

“Absent” Elector is a person who:

- is physically, emotionally, or mentally impaired;
- will be serving as an election judge or who has election duties in another voting precinct;
- is detained or incarcerated in a jail or prison for committing a misdemeanor;
- suffers a legal disability;
- is prevented from voting in a particular location because of religious tenets or other strongly held personal values;
- is called for jury duty in state or federal court; or
- otherwise expects to be absent from the voting precinct during the hours the polls are open on election day.

How to apply for an absentee ballot

A separate absentee ballot application must be filled out for each election. For absentee voting in regular general and primary elections (held in even-numbered years), this application must be filed by-mail or in person in the office of the voter's county clerk. For municipal and municipal primary elections (held in odd-numbered years), the application should be filed by-mail or in person in the office of the city clerk or recorder.

When to apply for an absentee ballot

Following are the deadlines for submission of the absentee voter ballot application:

1. For regular absentee voting, the clerk should receive this application no later than the Friday before the election.
2. For voters who are overseas, the clerk should receive this application no later than 20 days before the election.
3. For persons voting an absentee ballot at the office of the clerk or recorder, the clerk should receive this application no later than the day before the election.
